

MOUNTAIN BIKER
MUSIC LOVER
ENDOCRINOLOGIST
AARON PARDINI, M.D.

Join us in welcoming Aaron Pardini, M.D., as our endocrinologist. With strong clinical interest in pituitary and lipid disorders, Dr. Pardini will be working with patients who have diabetes, osteoporosis, thyroid and other hormonal disorders. And because he's a PeaceHealth Medical Group physician, he is connected to our family of primary care providers and specialists, all working to your good health.

Dr. Pardini has completed an endocrinology fellowship at the University of Washington, and looks forward to living in Eugene, a college town like his childhood home in Chico, California.

An avid music lover, Dr. Pardini mountain bikes, hikes and is learning how to play the guitar.

Make your connection to Dr. Pardini by calling 686-7029. His office is located at our Hilyard Street clinic.

WITH NEARLY 130 PRIMARY CARE DOCTORS AND SPECIALISTS, PEACEHEALTH MEDICAL GROUP KEEPS YOUR FAMILY CONNECTED TO A FULL RANGE OF EXCEPTIONAL CARE AT SEVEN CONVENIENT LOCATIONS.
