

What happens if I don't choose a health care agent?

Alaska State law lists who will make health care decisions for you if you cannot.

The order for who will decide is:

**Any group that has more than one person: all in the group should agree to the care.*

A guardian appointed by the state

Individual you name as your health care representative

Your spouse

Your adult child(ren) *

Your parent(s) *

Your adult sibling(s) *

An adult relative or close friend

