

Expanding care for a growing community

PeaceHealth investments improve access to vital services for Clark County

The healthcare needs of Clark County and Southwest Washington are changing. We're meeting those needs by improving access to care through facility expansion, additional services and re-imagining our current processes — all to provide you with a better patient experience.

Reinvesting in Southwest Washington

Clark County's largest employer

As the county's largest employer, we employ over 4,200 employees. We invest more than $1.5 million a day in our caregivers.

Last year, PeaceHealth made $64 million in improvements in Clark County

Whether it's building new facilities or getting the latest medical equipment, PeaceHealth provides high-quality care for Clark County residents.

Operating PeaceHealth in Clark County

It costs more than $989 million each year to run our hospital and 34 clinics in Clark County. More than half of this amount goes to our caregivers, including their salaries, benefits and payroll taxes.
